

The Making Of Ada

The Making Of Ada - This entry was posted in ADA, Civil Rights, Disability Rights, The Americans with Disabilities Act and tagged ADA25, Equal Rights, Human Rights, The Making of the ADA, Video Advocacy on July 14, 2015 by DREDF. The Making of Ada by C.O.C Amate Little has been written about the Adali (Ada) clan of Ghana, and much of this is scattered among various publications on Ghana and official documents of the British colonial administration. Flavour N'abania takes making music videos to the next level with his "Ada-Ada" wedding anthem. Shot in the beautiful coal city of Enugu, directed by Clarence Peters, with appearances by Mr Ibu ...